Be Thou My Vision

Slane

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart.
Naught be all else to me save that thou art.
Thou my best thought by day or by night.
Waking or sleeping thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true word,
I ever with thee, and thou with me, Lord
Thou my great Father, I thy true Son,
Thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.

High King of heaven, when victory won;
May I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's sun.
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
Still be my vision, O ruler of all.

BEANNÚ AGUS FÁILTE/ BLESSING AND GREETING

In ainm an Athar agus an Mhic agus an Spioraid Naoimh.
Amen.

Grásta ár dTiarna Íosa Críost agus grá Dé agus cumann an Spioraid Naoimh libh go léir.

Agus le do spiorad féin.

GNÍOMH AITHRÍ/PENITENTIAL ACT

A bhráithre tugaimis ár bpeacaí chun cuimhne chun go mb'fhiú sinn an tAifreann a cheiliúradh.

Admhaím do Dhia uilechumhactach agus daoibhse, a bhráithre, gur pheacaigh mé go trom le smaoineamh agus le briathar, le gníomh agus le faillí trí mo choir féin, trí mo choir féin, trí mo choir féin, trí mo mhorchóir féin.

Ar an ábhar sin, impím ar Naomh Mhuire síor-Ógh, ar na haingil agus ar na naoimh, agus oraibhse, a bhráithre, guí ar mo shon chun an Tiarna Dia.

KYRIE

A Thiarna déan trócaire.

A Críost déan trócaire.

A Thiarna déan trócaire.

AN GHLÓIR/GLORIA

Glóir do Dhia sna harda

Agus ar talamh síocháin do lucht a pháirte.

Molaimid thú. Móraimid thú. Adhraimid thú.

Tugaimid glóir duit. Gabhaimid buíochas leat as ucht do mhórghlóire. A Thiarna Dia, a Rí na bhFlaitheas, a Dhia, a Athair uilechumhachtaigh, A Thiarna, a Aon-Mhic, a Íosa Críost. A Thiarna Dia, a Uain Dé, Mac an Athar.

Tusa, a thógann peacaí an domhain, déan trócaire orainn.

Tusa a thógann peacaí an domhain, glac lenár ngui.

Tusa atá i do shuí ar dheis an Athar, déan trócaire orainn.

Óir is tú amháin is naofa, Is tú amháin is Tiarna.

Is tú amháin is ró-ard, a Íosa Críost, mar aon leis an Spiorad Naomh i nglóir Dé an tAthair.

Ámén.

Liturgy of the Word

AN CHÉAD LÉACHT/FIRST READING

Íseáia 55: 1-3

Cuireadh chuig na daoine atá ocráíoch teacht agus sásamh a fháil.

An invitation to the hungry to come and be satisfied.

Briathar an Tiarna.

Buíochas le Dia.

SALM LE FREAGRA/PSALM RESPONSE

Salm 145

Ní féidir le rud ar bith sinn a scaradh ó ghrá Dé, atá i gCríost.

The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs.

AN DARA LÉACHT/SECOND READING

Rómhánaigh 8: 35, 37-39

Lorgaí na níthe atá thuas mar a bhfuil Críost.

Seek the things that are above where Christ is.

Nothing can separate us from the love of God,
which is in Christ.

Briathar an Tiarna.

Buíochas le Dia.

ALLELUIA

Celtic Alleluia
O'Carroll/Walker

One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

SOISCÉAL/HOLY GOSPEL

Mhatha 14: 13-21

Míorúilt na n-arán agus na n-iasc; soláthraíonn Íosa bia go flúirseach do chách a bhfuil ocras orthu.

The miracle of the loaves and fishes; Jesus provides nourishment in abundance to all who hunger.

Soiscéal an Tiarna.

Moladh duit, a Críost.

AITHEASC /HOMILY

AN CHRÉ/CREED

Creidim in aon Dia amháin, an tAthair uilechumhachtach, a rinne neamh agus talamh agus an uile ní sofheicthe agus dofheicthe.

Agus in aon Tiarna amháin, Íosa Críost, Aon-Mhac Dé, an té a rugadh ón Athair sula raibh aon saol ann, Dia ó Dhia, solas ó sholas, fíorDhia ó fhíorDhia;
an té a gineadh agus nach ndearnadh, agus atá d'aon substaint leis an Athair;
is tríd a rinneadh an uile ní.

Ar ár son-na an cine daonna, agus ar son ár slánaithe, thuirling sé ó neamh.

(Cromtar an ceann):

Ionchollaíodh le chumhacht an Spioraid Naoimh é i mbroinn na Maighdine Muire agus glac sé nádur daonna.
Céasadh ar an gcrois é freisin ar ár son;
d'fhulaing sé páis faoi Phontius Píoláit agus adhlacadh é.
D'aiséirigh an treas lá de réir na scríoptúr;
chuaigh suas ar neamh; tá ina shuí ar dheis an Athar.
Tiocfaidh sé an athuair faoi ghlóir le breithiúnas a thabhair ar bheo agus ar mhairbh agus ní bheidh deireadh lena ríocht.

Creidim sa Spiorad Naomh, Tiarna agus bronntóir na beatha, an té a ghluaiseann ón Athair agus ón Mac.
Tugtar dó adhradh agus glóir mar aon leis an Athair agus leis an Mac: is é a labhair trí na fáithe.

Creidim san aon Eaglais naofa, chaitliceach, aspalda.
Admhaím an t-aon bhaisteadh amháin chun maithiúnas na bpeacaí. Agus táim ag súil le haiséirí na marbh agus le beatha an tasaoil atá le teacht. Ámén.

Ár n-arán laethúil tabhair dúinn inniu, agus maith duinn ár bhfiacha, mar a mhaithimidne dár bhéichiúna féin, agus ná lig sinn i gcathú, ach saor sinn ó olc. Ámén.

Seo é Uan Dé, seo é an té a thogann peacaí an domhain.
Is méanar dóibh siúd a fuair cuireadh chun séire an Uain.

AN BEANNÚ/BLESSING

Go raibh an Tiarna libh.

Agus le do spiorad féin.

Dia uilechumhachtach sibh,+ Athar, Mac agus Spiorad Naomh.

Amen.

Téigh i síocháin.

Buíochas le Dia.

Go in peace.

Thanks be to God.

I clasp unto my heart this day
the shielding strength of the Trinity,
By calling on its mystic name,
the Three in One, the One in Three.
Through whom all nature was created,
Eternal Father, Spirit, Word.
I Praise thee God of my salvation.
Salvation won by Christ the Lord.

I clasp unto my heart this day with steadfast faith
our Lord made man,
And him baptised in Jordan's flood,
his cross of death salvation's plan;
His rising from the enclosing tomb, his bright ascent to heaven's way
His coming on the day of doom,
I clasp unto my heart this day.

I clasp unto my heart this day
the leadership of God's strong hand
His eye to watch, His strength to stay;
his ears to hear and understand.
The truths God wills that I should teach,
his guidance sure, his shielding arm,
The Word of God which I should preach.
The angels guarding me from harm.
Against the spell of Satan's wiles;
against all lying heresy;
Against all action which defiles;
against all crass idolatry;
Against all pride of earthly state, against hell's pain and bondage stern, Against that endless fiery fate, protect me Christ, till thy return.

PENITENTIAL ACT

My brothers and sisters, to prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries, let us call to mind our sins.

I confess to almighty God, and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault,
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

KYRIE

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,

we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,

Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,

Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

you take away the sins of the world,

have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world,

receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father,

have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

HOMILY

CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow the head)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his Kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

An Ghaeilge

The Irish Language

Irish (An Ghaeilge) was the main language of the people of Ireland for most of their recorded history. It was brought by the Irish (then known as the Scotii) to Scotland and the Isle of Man, giving rise to Scottish Gaelic and Manx. It has the oldest vernacular literature in western Europe and is today the first official language of the Republic of Ireland, a recognized minority language in Northern Ireland and an official language of the European Union.

With the coming of the Anglo–Normans in the late 12th century the position of Irish in Dublin and other large towns was gradually weakened, though for centuries the authorities were concerned that many of the settlers not only adopted Irish social customs, but also spoke the language.

Until well into the 17th century, it remained the language of most of the population. However, a dramatic decline occurred in the 19th century, hastened by the Great Famine and the spread of state-sponsored elementary education conducted entirely in English. In certain areas of the country Irish survived as the language of the people, and was the medium of instruction in some, though not all, of the unofficial ‘hedge’ or ‘pay’ schools. But English, being the language of the political, professional and commercial classes, was seen as the key to further education and social advancement.

Irish vowels [á, a, é, e, í, i, ó, o, ú, u] make single sounds. They come in two varieties, long and short. Long vowels are marked with an acute accent, called in Irish, a fada (which means “long”).

Irish consonants work somewhat like Spanish or Italian: for example the letter C has two different pronunciations in the words cappucino or San Francisco. In these languages, when c is followed by an i or an e, it is pronounced differently than if it is followed by a, o, or u. Irish does the same thing in a very systematic way. i and e are called slender vowels; a, o, and u are broad vowels. Each consonant is pronounced either in a broad or slender way, according to the surrounding vowels. Irish spelling requires that the vowels match on either side of a consonant, which is summarized as caol le caol, leathan le leathan (slender with slender, broad with broad). When foreign words are translated into Irish, extra “glide vowels” may be introduced to fulfill this rule; for example, California might become Caileafóirnia.

Irish has fewer consonants than English: b, c, d, f, g, l, m, n, p, r, s, t. Most of them are pronounced very much like English. Some consonants in Irish can undergo a transformation called séimhiú, which is somewhat inaccurately translated as “aspiration.” In the old Irish script this was shown by putting a little dot above the letter. Today, Irish is printed using the standard Western alphabet, and the dot has been replaced by the letter “h” following the consonant. “h” in Irish is not a letter, it is an operation. That’s why there seem to be so many “h”s in Irish!

Diphthongs - when two vowels appear together - are the trickiest part of Irish pronunciation. The reason it’s tricky is that sometimes one of the vowels is favored in pronunciation, but other times it is just a glide vowel. Recall that a glide vowel simply changes the quality from broad to slender.

The slender glide vowel is easy because we have it in English. Irish tún would be English “toon,” Irish tiún would be English “tune.” So the slender glide vowel is a sort of very quick “y” sound.

Now that it all makes sense, below are several common Irish words and phrases with their English phonetic pronunciations:
